Sub: Engagement of the Maharashtra Security Force Guards in MSEDCL.

The Maharashtra Security Force (MSF) has been created vide Maharashtra State Security Corporation Act, 2010 (Maharashtra Act No. 2010). The personnel of MSF have police powers including power of arrest. The deployment of MSF personnel is done on the basis of requisition from the concerned organization. The MSF personnel are governed by Police (Incitement to Disaffection) Act 1922 and the Police Forces (Restriction of Rights) Act, 1966. Hence, they can neither form or join any association or organize or participate in any agitation. The better liaison with Police and administrative machinery is ensured in the case of need.

2. The issue regarding theft detection drives, verification, lodging of complaints and recoveries in the instances of theft of energy by the consumer has been examined and with the approval of Competent Authority, it has been decided to depute 10 Maharashtra Security Force Guards per Circle in the Company.

3. All the concerned authorities are hereby directed to deploy 10 MSF Guards per Circle by sending specific requisition to the Maharashtra State Security Corporation by following due procedure. The terms of engagement of MSF Guards are to be decided mutually between Supdtg. Engineer(O&M) and Maharashtra Security Force.

4. This Circular comes into force with immediate effect. This circular is available on R-APDRP Portal.
