Consequent upon declaration of the additional instalment of Dearness Allowance by the Government of Maharashtra vide Government Resolution, F. D. No. मसत/११२४/३०/सेव - १०, dated 27/04/1994 to all Government employees with effect from 1st January, 1994 and since the Board follows Government orders in the matter of grant of Dearness Allowance to its employees, the Chairman in consultation with the Member (Admn.)/Secretary, the Technical Member and the Accounts Member, in exercise of the powers delegated by the Board by their Resolution No. 660, dated 18th July, 1987 has accorded approval to revise the rates of Dearness Allowance as follows :-

Date from which revised Dearness Allowance is payable.	Basic pay in the revised pay-scales.	Revised rate of Dearness Allowance per month.
1st January, 1994.	(i) Upto Rs. 3,500/-.	104%.
	(ii) Rs. 3501/- to Rs. 6000/-.	78% but minimum Rs. 3640/-.
	(iii) Above Rs. 6000/-.	67% but minimum Rs. 4680/-.

2/- While calculating the amount of Dearness Allowance at the revised rates payable with effect from 1st January, 1994 onwards, the Basic pay in the revised pay-scale should only be taken into consideration. Special Pay, Deputation Allowance, Special Compensatory Allowance, Heavy Duty Allowance or any other Allowance which is classified as "Pay" should not be taken into consideration while calculating Dearness Allowance at revised rate.

3/- The payment on account of Dearness Allowance at revised rate involving fraction of Fifty Paise and above may be rounded off to the next higher rupee and the fraction of less than Fifty Paise may be ignored.

4/- The Dearness Allowance at the revised rates as per this Correction Slip should be considered for the purpose of payment of Gratuity, Over Time, Encashment of Leave under the provisions of G.O. 59 (P), dated 27/06/1970, Service Regulations 39 (a) and G.O. 114 (P), dated 23/08/1982 and any other payment/recovery which is dependent on Pay and Dearness Allowance.

5/- In case of employees who have given option to retain old pay-scale as stated above in G.O. 121 (P), dated 22/03/1990 and G.O. 123 (P), dated 06/04/1990, the amount of Dearness Allowance at revised rates payable with effect from 1st January, 1994 onwards should be calculated on the total of basic pay as on 1st January, 1986 and the amount of Dearness Allowance and Ad-hoc Dearness Allowance admissible on that pay as on 1st January, 1986. This should be shown distinctly as Additional Dearness Allowance in the pay bill as herebefore in their cases.

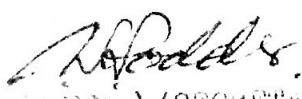

6/- In respect of the Government employees on deputation to the M.S.E.B., the additional instalment of Dearness Allowance due from 1st January, 1994 shall be paid in Cash. However, such of the Government employees who are drawing basic pay exceeding Rs. 3,500/- per month, the increase in the Dearness Allowance as a result of revision as on 01/07/1990, 01/01/1991, 01/07/1991, 01/01/1992 and 01/07/1992 shall continue to be credited to their Provident Fund Account.

7/- The Dearness Allowance at the revised rate should be drawn and paid through the salary bills of May, 1994 onwards to all the employees of the Board.

8/- Further, the payment of arrears on account of increase in Dearness Allowance for the period from 1st January, 1994 to 30th April, 1994 (i.e. 4 months) should also be paid to them in Cash in the month of May, 1994 along with salary payment.

9/- In case of employees who are transferred from one Office to another Office on or after 1st January, 1994, the arrears on account of revised rates of Dearness Allowance payable to such employees for the period from 1st January, 1994 to the date of relief from the old Office should also be drawn and paid by the concerned Office where such employees are working at the time of drawal of arrears i.e. in the month of May, 1994.

These orders shall also apply to work-charged employees, if any.
